5. Business arising from the minutes	Charles Abela advised that he also stated that any survey would disenfranchise the vote of the precinct committee. He said it was his intention there should be no survey. Online Survey - Gail Tring also advised her comment was just endorsing something the members said in the background and she thought if that's what they said she'll put that forward. Then it was pointed out that it would not be the right thing to do by members of the committee. The committee should vote and that should be the vote taken on the night. So then it was withdrawn Both items to be checked on the recording of the meeting and corrected if confirmed.
6. Bumborah Point	Resolution: 18:05 Charles Abela sought permission from the precinct to speak to Alan Bright Strategic Planning Manager Randwick Council in regard to Bumborah Point rezoning.
